FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

Saint Mary's University gathers and maintains information used for the purposes of admission, registration and other fundamental activities related to being a member of the university community, and a public post-secondary institution in the Province of Nova Scotia; such as contact information regarding university programs, services, university advancement and development. If admitted, it will form part of the student record and may be disclosed to faculty or members of the university staff for officially recognized and legitimate use. In signing an application for admission, any information placed into your student record will be protected and used in compliance with Nova Scotia's Freedom of information and Protection of Privacy Act 1993.c5, s.1.

Regulations relating to all academic matters and student conduct are made by the Board of Governors and the Senate of the university. In making this application, the student agrees to abide by all regulations, from time to time promulgated by the university. Attendance refers to both full-time and part-time and even applies in cases of withdrawal before completion of an academic year or program.
